Natural green spaces abound

Limsi Grove is bounded by a gentle slope running down to a stream on one side and a cricket pitch on the other, with mature trees lining the development – creating a calm and restful ambience which perfectly suits its setting on the edge of a town that's rich in parklands and waterside walks. Hertford lies at the meeting place of four rivers, and natural green spaces are abundant alongside each of them.

The best of ancient & modern

Still retaining much of its medieval street plan, and with a wealth of historic buildings – including a castle founded as fortification against the Danes – Hertford is the perfect blend of picturesque and practical, quaint and sometimes quirky.

A lively choice of bars, eateries, entertainments and events sit alongside independent shops and boutiques, a choice of supermarkets and fast and convenient rail connections for commuting.

Town and country lifestyle

It's easy to enjoy a balanced and happy way of life in Hertford – with sports and leisure to suit all ages and interests. Swimming, tennis, football, gym and fitness for instance, at Hartham Leisure Centre – currently being redeveloped with an £8million investment due for completion in Autumn 2022. The Leisure Centre is located on Hartham Common, along with play areas, a skate park, bowls, and riverside and woodland trails. There are many more open green spaces and wildlife sanctuaries within walking distance of the town centre, which is also seeing extensive investment, with nearly £20million being spent on upgrading the theatre and cinema and the Bircherley Green shopping complex.

A great choice of schools

Hertford is a hotbed of excellent educational options. Within half a mile of Limsi Grove, you'll find Ofsted rated 'outstanding' education for ages 4-18 at Simon Balle All-Through School, a two minute walk from Limsi Grove, and Abel Smith Primary, while Morgans Primary and Nursery and Richard Hale Secondary School are both rated 'Good'. Just a little further away, there are other great choices for all ages, both public and independent.

Perfect for family life

With its parks and green spaces, rivers and canal, lively community spirit, events and activities for all ages, great schooling and a history, heritage and character that's all its own, Hertford is a wonderful place to settle down and raise a family – and Limsi Grove is perfectly located to help you make the most of it all. When you fancy doing something different, you're within reach of entertainment, shopping centres and days out in surrounding towns too.

Places to go

Eating out – choose from a great range of restaurants – Lussmanns comes highly recommended – and family friendly pubs, both in Hertford centre, and surrounding villages and neighbouring towns.

Sports and leisure – Hartham Sports Centre offers a wide range of all-age activities, Hertford Hockey and Cricket Clubs are a '6' away from home and there are plenty of soft play and outdoor options too – including some superb golf courses.

Family days out – Visit Foxholes Farm, Woody's Play Barn, Paradise Wildlife Park, East Herts Miniature Railway, the Waterbus on the Lee, Knebworth Estate and lots more.

Parks, green spaces and nature reserves – you're spoilt for choice, from Balls Wood and Hertford Heath Park and Nature Reserve close to home, to Panshanger Park on the other side of town, with its wetlands, lakes and abundant wildlife.

History and heritage – is all around you in the town centre, with a 41-stop heritage trail, the castle and museum – and over in Ware, the fascinating Scott's Grotto. Hatfield House is a must too.

Something a bit different? How about an open evening class at Bayfordbury Observatory or pottery at Manic Ceramics.

Shopping and entertainment – explore a centuries old market, modern independent shops and stores and the theatre and arts centre in Hertford itself – and for bigger shopping expeditions, cinema and nightlife, it's just a short trip to Welwyn, Hatfield and other nearby centres.

What our customers say

“ Moving into a house that was already fully designed and decorated was such a huge relief and absolutely fantastic. It’s a beautiful home which the kids love. Space is what we were after and it’s exactly what we now have at Audley Chase. Our garden in particular is far more open than at our previous home.

exceptional. Looking back, having started the part exchange process quite anxious, I now can’t believe how easy it was. All of the people involved were as friendly, personable and in touch as much as possible, removing all of the negotiation. Nothing was too much of an ask, despite the pandemic looming over us all. ”

I can’t speak highly enough of the Cala team. The end-to-end management has been

Sustainability the Cala way

Cala has a rich heritage originally dating back to 1875. We started building homes in the 1970s and, for over 50 years, have been creating high quality, sustainable new homes and communities. However it is not just what we do, but the way we do it that matters to Cala.

Thinking sustainably is at the heart of everything we do; from identifying the right sites, through creating a safe, healthy and fulfilling working environment, to taking a sensitive approach to development and delivering communities that meet local requirements.

As part of our sustainability journey we are aiming to reduce our paper usage by 90% across the company, including the customer journey, which is why we are aiming for online only brochures at our developments.
